Sea shanty about Captain Don and crew sailing the tall ship Bill of Rights

(Verse 1) Come gather 'round, me hearties bold, I'll tell you a tale of days of old, Of Captain Don and his brave crew, Sailing the tall ship Bill of Rights, true.

(Chorus) Heave-ho, me lads, on the rolling tide, With wind in our sails, we'll not be denied, Through storm and calm, we'll face the fight, Captain Don and his crew, oh, what a sight!

(Verse 2) With the dawn's light, we set to sea, Bound for adventures, wild and free, From port to port, our journey spans, A fearless crew, true-hearted fans.

(Chorus) Heave-ho, me lads, on the rolling tide, With wind in our sails, we'll not be denied, Through storm and calm, we'll face the fight, Captain Don and his crew, oh, what a sight!

(Verse 3) The waves may crash, the tempests roar, Yet Captain Don leads evermore, With compass true and courage high, Together we'll reach the distant sky.

(Chorus) Heave-ho, me lads, on the rolling tide, With wind in our sails, we'll not be denied, Through storm and calm, we'll face the fight, Captain Don and his crew, oh, what a sight!

(Bridge) From sunlit days to moonlit nights, We'll sing and dance beneath starry lights, With hearts as one, we'll sail the main, Bound by friendship that will never wane.

(Chorus) Heave-ho, me lads, on the rolling tide, With wind in our sails, we'll not be denied, Through storm and calm, we'll face the fight, Captain Don and his crew, oh, what a sight!

(Verse 4) So raise your glasses to the crew, Captain Don and the Bill of Rights, too, In every sea, in every fight, Together we'll conquer with all our might.

(Chorus) Heave-ho, me lads, on the rolling tide, With wind in our sails, we'll not be denied, Through storm and calm, we'll face the fight, Captain Don and his crew, oh, what a sight!

(Outro) Now as we part ways, remember well, The tales of Captain Don we tell, On the Bill of Rights, forever we'll roam, A legendary crew, sailing towards home.
